

Middle East Situation Update – Service Advisory

Date: March 13, 2026 Form No. 1

Dear Valued Customers,

In view of the continued escalation of war and/or military actions between the United States and Israel against Iran, which has rendered the security situation in the Middle East increasingly unpredictable and beyond control, Wan Hai Lines continues to closely monitor developments and to prudently assess all feasible contingency measures in order to safeguard the safety of vessels, crew, and cargo.

With respect to the cargoes currently onboard M/V WAN HAI A17 and M/V KOTA PLUMBAGO, please be advised that the cargoes are planned to be temporarily discharged at Mundra, India, with further details as outlined for the cargoes shall be as below:

1. Continued Efforts to Safely Deliver Cargo to the Place of Delivery or other feasible port.

Subject to feasibility and safety considerations, Wan Hai Lines will continue to assess and endeavor to arrange the onward transportation of the cargoes to originally intended Place of Delivery or other feasible port by appropriate and safe means.

2. Consider Change of Destination (COD)

Given the prevailing operational constraints and regional uncertainties, cargo interests are advised to carefully consider to proceed the Change of Destination (COD) to a port of their cargoes. Such arrangement shall be subject to under the current services & circumstances availability and shall only be implemented upon confirmation by Wan Hai Lines.

3. Costs and Charges

Any and all costs and charges arising from the above circumstances and related contingency arrangements, including but not limited to additional costs resulting from operational adjustments, deviation, change of discharge port, terminal handling, storage, transshipment, and other related operational expenses, shall be for the account of the cargo interests.

Details shall be subject to further notice or advisory by Wan Hai Lines, and all applicable charges must be settled prior to cargo release.

Wan Hai Lines will continue to monitor the situation closely and will provide further updates as appropriate. Should you have any questions or require further discussion regarding the above arrangements, please contact your local Wan Hai Lines representative.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation.

Yours faithfully,

WAN HAI LINES LTD.
